

THE PRAYER OF A CHILDLESS COUPLE

O good Saint Anne, patroness of married life, to you we turn in our trial and difficulty.

You, who suffered the same affliction, can understand and sympathise with us in our sorrow.

You bore the same cross for over twenty years and know how our hearts yearn for the gift of a child to crown our married life with joy and fulfilment.

Help us to join our prayers to yours in humility and trust that God may grant our request.

If this is not His holy will, obtain for us a resignation, humble and sincere, confessing in our hearts that God knows best and that His holy will is the sweetest thing of all.

Amen.
