TRUTH & RECONCILIATION WEEKEND

Powerful & Inspiring speakers from Northern Ireland

Christopher Hudson, an Irish former trade union activist who subsequently became a Unitarian Minister in Northern Ireland will open the weekend with a fascinating talk on Saturday morning at 11am, on the part he played in helping to bring the Loyalist Paramilitaries to the Peace talks.

Following our Gala Dinner in the Four Seasons Restaurant, Seamus Mallon will chair our five speakers contributions followed by a panel discussion and an interactive evening commencing at 8pm. The occasion will provide our speakers, Alan McBride, Stephen Travers, Eugene Reavey, Michael Gallagher and Joe Campbell, from very different backgrounds with a platform from which to share intimate, personal testimony of real life experience.

Complimentary tickets available for Saturday morning and evening talks.
