Post-Communion Reflection
'Psalm of Remembering'

*My family, loved ones, friends, I am about to leave;
My last breath does not say 'goodbye'
for my love is truly timeless,
I leave myself to your memory, with love.*

*I leave my thoughts, my laughter, my dreams to you whom I have treasured beyond gold and precious gems.
I give you what no thief can steal,
the memories of our time together:
the tender, love-filled moments, the successes we have shared,
the hard times that brought us closer together and the roads we have walked side by side.*

*I also leave you a solemn promise that after I am home, in the bosom of God,
I will still be present, whenever and wherever you call on me.
My energy will be drawn to you by the magnet of our love.
Whenever you are in need, call me;
I will come to you with my arms full of wisdom and light to open up your blocked pathways, to untangle your knots, and be your avenue to God.*

*And all I take with me, as I leave you,
is your love and the millions of memories of all that we have shared.*

*Fear not, nor grieve, at my departure,
you whom I have loved so much,
for my roots and yours are forever intertwined.*

Prayer for the Dead

God our Father
Your power brings us to birth,
Your providence guides our lives,
And by your command we return to dust.

Lord, those who die still live in Your presence,
Their lives change but do not end.
I pray in hope for my family, relatives and friends,
And for all the dead known to You alone.

In company with Christ,
Who died and now lives,
May they rejoice in Your kingdom,
Where all tears are wiped away.
Unite us again in one family,
To sing Your praise for ever.

Amen
